

Programme of Activities for Colleges and Universities at the Galleries of Justice Museum

The Galleries of Justice Museum is the museum of Crime and Punishment at the old County Gaol and Shire Hall in Nottingham

NCCL utilises the Victorian Court Rooms, prison cells, disused Police Station, and archival and documentary material from the HM Prison Service Collection to deliver a range of appropriate activities for FE and HE students including: Law, History, Sociology, Criminal Psychology, Museum Studies, Social History and many more
