

Secondary Schools Programme

@ the Galleries of Justice Museum

The Galleries of Justice Museum is the museum of Crime and Punishment at the old County Gaol and Shire Hall in Nottingham

NCCL utilises its Victorian court rooms, prison cells, artefacts and archives from the HM Prison Service Collection and disused Police Station to deliver a range of curriculum linked activities for KS3, KS4 and KS5 students including: History, Citizenship, Law, Literacy / English, Marketing, and Leisure and Tourism.

www.nccl.org.uk

Learning@nccl.org.uk

0115 952 0555

We are a registered charity: 1030554

Affix stamp

Programme of educational activities

Choose one activity from each box (maximum of three activities in total for a full day visit)

Museum Tours

- Personalised Tour
(Mondays and Tuesdays)
- Audio Tour
(Mondays and Tuesdays)
- Crime and Punishment Performance Tour
(Wednesdays to Fridays)
- Court Rooms and Police Station Tour

Exhibitions

- The Cabinets of Crime Exhibition:
Teacher-led resources
- The Cabinets of Crime Exhibition:
Facilitated guide

Talks with staff

- A range of talks with the Senior Curator and Archivist
- Marketing / Customer Service / Leisure and Tourism

Mock Trials

- Privateer or Pirate? (The Tudors)
- Daniel Diggle (The Luddites)
- Valentine Marshall (The Reform Bill Riots/Chartists)
- Richardson, Rathbone and Parker (The Suffragettes)
- Mary Davies (Georgian Servant)
- Blazing Car Murder (1930s murder case)
- William Saville (Capital Punishment)
- Darren Burton (Contemporary – Graffiti)
- Scott Green (Contemporary – Drugs)

Workshops

- Post Mock Trial debate with a facilitator
- Handling artefacts from the Museum's Collection

Prices

- 1 activity = £6.00 per student
- 2 activities = £8.00 per student
- 3 activities = £10.00 per student

- 1 Teacher free with every 10 students
- Free familiarisation visit for all group leaders
- Activities can be booked 10.30 – 4.00 Monday to Friday unless otherwise stated
- Lunch spaces available upon request

For more information or to book please contact us:

www.nccl.org.uk

learning@nccl.org.uk

0115 952 0555

NCCL is the education service provider for the Galleries of Justice Museum

NCCL, Galleries of Justice Museum, The Lace Market, Nottingham. NG1 1HN